

tion of sections 464(a)(2) (A), (B) and (C) as in effect prior to such date of enactment.”.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall take effect as if enacted on July 23, 1992.

On motion of Mr. NATCHER, the House receded from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 236 and concurred therein with the following amendment:

In lieu of the matter inserted by said amendment, insert:

SEC. 511. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, funds appropriated or otherwise made available which are not mandated by law for programs, projects or activities funded by this Act shall be reduced by .8 per centum.

On motion of Mr. NATCHER, the House receded from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 237 and concurred therein with the following amendment:

In lieu of the matter inserted by said amendment, insert:

SEC. 512. (a) Beginning in fiscal year 1994, and in each fiscal year thereafter, the Office of Management and Budget shall establish the funding for consulting services for each department and agency as a separate object class in each budget annually submitted to the Congress under section 1105 of title 31, United States Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, consulting services include—

- (1) management and professional support services;
- (2) studies, analyses, and evaluations;
- (3) engineering and technical services (excluding routine engineering services such as automated data processing and architect and engineering contracts); and
- (4) research and development.

On motion of Mr. NATCHER, the House receded from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 238 and concurred therein with the following amendment:

In lieu of the section number named in said amendment, insert “514”.

On motion of Mr. NATCHER, the House receded from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 239 and concurred therein with the following amendment:

In lieu of the matter inserted by said amendment, insert:

SEC. 515. Funds appropriated in Public Law 102-170 for the National Commission on Children shall remain available until expended.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the foregoing motions were agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶119.7 ARMED FORCES HEALTH CARE SYSTEM

On motion of Mrs. SCHROEDER, pursuant to House Resolution 589, the House considered the bill (S. 3144) to amend title 10, United States Code, to improve the health care system provided for members and former members of the Armed Forces and their dependents, and for other purposes.

When said bill was considered and read twice.

After debate,

¶119.8 WORDS TAKEN DOWN

Mr. AUCOIN during debate addressed the House and, during the course of his remarks,

Mr. WALKER demanded that certain words be taken down.

The Clerk read the words taken down as follows:

“This President was willing to bring down and subjugate the defense of the country because of the agenda of the National Right to Life Committee. He has done it before. He has brought down the Labor-HHS appropriations because of a similar amendment protecting a woman’s right to choose. I want America to know that there is no function of this Government that George Herbert Hoover Bush would not subjugate to the agenda of the National Right to Life—”

Mr. AUCOIN, by unanimous consent, was permitted to withdraw said words.

By unanimous consent, Mr. AUCOIN, was permitted to proceed in order.

Subsequently,

¶119.8a WORDS TAKEN DOWN

Mr. OBEY addressed the Chair for purposes of a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HYDE demanded that certain words be taken down.

The Clerk read the words taken down as follows:

Does this episode mean that sometimes rules of the House prevent one from speaking the truth on the House floor?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DOWNEY, held that the words failed to present a proper parliamentary inquiry, but were not otherwise unparliamentary.

After further debate,

On motion of Mrs. SCHROEDER, the previous question was ordered.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read a third time by title.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House pass said bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SWIFT, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. VOLKMER objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.

When there appeared $\left\{ \begin{array}{ll} \text{Yeas} & \dots\dots 220 \\ \text{Nays} & \dots\dots 186 \end{array} \right.$
